Dear Friends & Neighbors:

We are delighted to share and celebrate the substantial impact that you made possible in 2017. It is through your generosity and commitment that we can say 2017 was both successful and inspirational for the Community Foundation of Fayette County. First, we want to thank our individual and corporate donors. Their generosity makes our accomplishments possible. It is our pleasure to offer ongoing support to them by offering prudent investment opportunities and directing them to where charitable giving needs are the greatest. Because of the support of our donors in 2017, CFFC awarded $456,563 in grants focusing on the areas of education, arts and culture, health and human services and economic development. CFFC also distributed over $260,862 in Pre-K to 12th grade tuition assistance and post-secondary scholarships. Both achievements greatly contributed to attaining our core mission, which is to enrich the quality of life for all residents of Fayette County and to make this county a better place to live and to work.

We invite you to join us as we strive to make a difference every day. It is our hope that you will take some time to review this annual report. Get to know us better by visiting www.cffayetepa.org. Personally, it is very rewarding to be a part of this organization. I have enjoyed my chairmanship and look forward to more success in the future. Join us as we build a stronger Fayette.

How does the Community Foundation benefit Fayette County?

Grantmaking: CFFC offers a competitive grantmaking program that makes awards to non-profit organizations in Fayette County and organizations that provide a benefit to the county. Funding areas include, but are not limited to: arts and culture, economic development, education, environmental awareness, and health and human services. Application deadlines are March 1 and September 1.

Scholarships: CFFC offers scholarships for post-secondary education to Fayette County residents. Applicants can choose from a variety of scholarship funds.

A Supportive Community Leader: CFFC acts as a community leader by assisting and guiding non-profit organizations, by advising individuals on the best options for their charitable giving, and by assessing and responding to the needs of the county.

Personalized Donor Services: CFFC welcomes donors with various interests and giving capabilities including individuals, non-profit organizations, corporations and foundations. The CFFC staff provides pertinent investment guidance, manages accounts, and connects donors with appropriate non-profit organizations.

Founders

The Community Foundation of Fayette County was founded, in 1999, by a group of community leaders including John Buchanon, Charles Cluss, Lee Frankhouser, Albert Skonra, Lynda Weggoner and the late philanthropist Robert Eberly, Sr., and three of this region’s largest private foundations – Claude Worthington Benedum Foundation, Richard King Mellon Foundation and McCune Foundation. Their intention was to create a charitable Foundation with a focus on Fayette County to enrich the quality of life and to assist the County’s non-profit sector. Today, CFFC has grown dramatically and now holds over 170 funds and $18 million in pooled assets.

The Community Foundation of Fayette County was founded in 1999 with a mission to create a charitable foundation with a focus on Fayette County, to improve and enrich the quality of life for all residents and to assist the county’s non-profit sector. Two years later, the CFFC grantmaking program was started.

CFFC is led by a volunteer board of directors. Daily operations are managed by a small, professional staff, who possess decades of experience in non-profit management, development, grants administration, and finance.

In 2009, the CFFC received National Accreditation from the Council on Foundations (COF) and was named the Outstanding Foundation in Western Pennsylvania by the Association of Fundraising Professionals. The foundation was reaccredited in 2014. As an accredited organization, CFFC is guaranteed to follow and apply the strict professional standards and practices set forth by the COF and the Internal Revenue Service.

The Achievement in the Arts Fund

The Fayette County Cultural Trust was founded by Daniel Cocks and Michael Edwards. Through this organization, the Achievement in the Arts Fund was established in 2014. The fund honors elected high school seniors from Fayette County's six public schools and Geibel Catholic.

Like so many others, both Dan and Michael are disappointed that schools seem to be losing focus on the arts. So, to keep the arts alive, the Fayette County Cultural Trust partnered with the area Rotary organizations to create the award. The award recognizes the youth of today by acknowledging the talents they achieved during their senior year in high school. Students are celebrated for their outstanding achievements in Music, Theater and Visual Arts.

The Achievement in the Arts Fund furthers the mission of the Fayette County Cultural Trust of improving the quality of life in Fayette County. Both the Fayette County Cultural Trust and the Rotary organizations recognize that honoring students who have excelled in the arts is an important effort to undertake because the skills and talents that they acquire will stay with them for a lifetime.

Terry Burden's life of service started early through her affiliation with the youth ministries at her church in Uniontown, Pa. Later, at the University of Pittsburgh, her life of service continued as a member of the Gamma Sigma Sigma service sorority. During her years at Pitt, she was involved in many service projects in the Oakland community of Pittsburgh.

After graduation, she decided to return to Fayette County to be near her family. During the past 15 years as a member of the Interfaith Assembly for Christ Church, she has served as a trustee, a board member and treasurer.

Terry had a 28-year professional career as a claims representative with State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company. During this time, she continued her involvement with service projects in the community. Prior to retirement she was awarded State Farm Insurance Companies Northeast Zone Volunteer of the Year. In addition, she was also honored by the Pittsburgh Courier as one of their Fifty Women of Excellence.

An invitation from a friend, prompted Terry to attend a Silver Generations meeting at the East End United Community Center. She became involved in many of the programs at the center, and her involvement led to being selected as the 2016 East End United Community Center Volunteer of the Year. Terry established The Burden Fund for East End United Community Center, which is a Donor Designated Fund. She raised funds for the East End Community Center as a participant in the Fayette Philanthropy Project in 2016.
